

Activity Report
Eastern Deanery
August 11, 2016

For the most part, the Eastern Deanery has taken a break this summer with the following activities reported since the last diocesan board meeting:

Blessed Sacrament Women's Guild

- Monthly lunch gatherings
- "Girls' Weekend" at a former member's home in Navarre
- Several workshops, including one on making jams and jellies
- Fundraising for and donations to the new NCCW Purse Club, which was spearheaded by Women's Guild President Ladanya Ramirez Surmeier
- Prayer -- for members' intentions and for the intentions of diocesan seminarians
- Monthly summer meetings of the Guild Leadership Team to update the brochure and membership directory

Co-Cathedral of St. Thomas More

- Hosted two monthly Fellowship Sundays
- Collected and counted nearly 1,300 individual toiletry items and delivered them to the Kearney Center and the Hope Community
- Seven members attended the annual Women's Retreat at Visitation Monastery in Mobile
- Leadership Team met for dinner to begin planning the year's activities

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

- No activities reported

Respectfully submitted,
Kathy Grobe
Deanery President
