

January 27, 2018

Greetings!

It is that time of year again where we find preparation for our annual Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (DCCW) 2018 convention in full swing!

Your Convention Planning Team needs your assistance generating revenue which is needed to help cover the expenses associated with this year's long convention.

Attached is a master copy of this year's Ad Sales Form. We encourage you to provide copies for your members AND challenge your member to sell ads for our 2018 convention program.

In addition, we hope that each affiliation, deanery, and parish will place a "best wishes" ad or a congratulatory ad commemorating the occasion of our Pensacola-Tallahassee DCCW 43rd Annual Convention: Mary – Sharing her Gift of Joy, which is scheduled for April 27-28 at the Holiday Inn, Panama City across from the Mall.

This year's convention program will be the standard 8½ by 11 inch size so there is plenty of space to fill! Please pay attention to specific ad sales details on the Ad Sales Form.

Thank you for supporting your 2018 Convention Planning Team and helping to make this year's convention a success!

Now what are you waiting for? Go make copies and start selling!! 😊

Thank you and God bless,

Joan Walker
