Calling All Catholic Women

The P-T Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will be holding their 42nd Annual Convention, DCCW: Agents of Hope April 22 at The Cathedral of the Sacred in Pensacola. Speakers Reverend Nicholas Schumm and Michelle Benzinger will enlighten us on how we can be conduits of hope with their theme of "Abide and Flourish". Sheila Hopkins, President of the NCCW, will speak about "Catholic Women Bringing Hope to all God's People. This one day convention will be filled with Hope, liturgies, prayer, fellowship, fun and the presentation of the annual Burse Club check. All members of the CCW should plan to join their sisters in Council (however you need not be a member to attend)! Contact Cynthia Lacour at 850.712.1221 for more information including registration forms or visit www.ptdccw.org.

May Our Lady of Good Counsel bless the DCCW with a fruitful 2017 Convention.
