CALL TO CONVENTION

January 28, 2018

Dear Reverend Fathers, Sisters in Council and Friends of Council,

The Pensacola-Tallahassee Diocesan Council of Catholic Women invite you to join us for our 43rd Annual convention on April 27, 2018 to April 28, 2018. Our theme for this year's convention is "Mary – Sharing her Gift of Joy". The conference is schedule to be held in Panama City at the Holiday Inn, 2001 North Martin Luther King Boulevard. We will also visit St. Peter and Paul Vietnames Parish for fun night and Our Lady of the Rosary Parish for the Bishop's Mass.

This year our convention starts Friday morning and ends Saturday evening. This year we have incorporated leadership training along with spiritual messages revolving around Mary sharing her Joy. We will have speakers from Council – Linda Carter, NCCW Leadership Coordinator and Jean Baxley, FCCW President. We will also have the pleasure to hear messages from Bishop William Wack, Father Luke Farabaugh and Father William Ganci.

The convention committee and affiliates of East Central Deanery have been busy planning to make this experience very inspiring. President Joan Walker and the women in ECDCCW are excited to welcome the women of our diocese to come and enjoy the two days of events.

Please plan to attend and encourage your sisters in Council to come and join us. Ask non-council members and your friends to join us also – this is open to all women in our parishes.

We look forward to coming together in worship and fellowship. Hope to see you in April.

Sue Weathersbee, President
